

Spartanburg, where they will attend the annual meeting of the South Carolina Upper conference of the Methodist church.

Mr. R. M. Sherer of Sharon, was in Yorkville yesterday, for the first time since he broke his leg about four months ago. He had no particular business other than a desire to get out where he could see his friends, and during the day he shook hands with large numbers of them from all parts of the country.

Mr. W. B. Riddle of Bowling Green, was among the visitors here yesterday. Asked whether he would be in the race for the legislature again next summer, Mr. Riddle said he didn't know, but he thought he would, because he didn't have time. "There is no money in it," remarked Mr. Riddle. "The fact is the man who can't make more money at home than he could in the legislature in the same amount of time, isn't fit to represent the county."

LOCAL LACONICS

The Tirzah Warehouse.

The Tirzah Warehouse, which was completed with a capacity of 1,000 bales, was taken into operation yesterday. Mr. T. B. Glenn is custodian and manager.

School Building Nearing Completion. The new Cedar Grove school building is nearing completion. The building is a one-room structure and will supply a long felt need. Mr. W. L. Wallace of Yorkville No. 3, who is building the new school house, thinks he will complete the work this week. Still Increasing.

Mr. W. L. Pursey, custodian of the Filbert state warehouse, said yesterday that there were more than 170 bales of cotton stored in the warehouse at present and that more was coming in each day. Mr. Pursey thinks the warehouse will be filled by Christmas.

Santiago Juniors Have Good Time. The Santiago council of the Jr. O. U. A. M., entertained the members and guests at a big supper at the Santiago school house last Saturday night, about seventy-five guests taking of the bounteous feast of oysters, chickens, salads, cakes, etc. It was a most enjoyable affair.

Western Teachers To Meet. Prof. J. W. Shealey of Clover, and Miss Isabel Adams of Sharon, members of the executive committee of the western division of the York County Teachers' association, held a meeting in the office of the superintendent of education here Saturday and outlined a programme for the first meeting of the western division on Friday of each week until further notice.

More Schools Open. Among the schools which opened yesterday for the fall term, were those at Oden and Wilkerson. The former is in charge of Miss Irene Grier of Columbia. The school trustees are W. H. Dunlap and C. E. Strait. The Wilkerson school is under the direction of Miss Olla Wilkerson. The trustees are W. S. Wilkerson, J. J. Robinson and J. Bulce.

Linwood Alumni to Meet. York county ladies, former students at Linwood college near Columbia, will be interested to learn that it is proposed to organize the Linwood college alumnae association at Linwood on Thanksgiving day. President Lindsay of Linwood, is desirous of having as many former students attend the first meeting of the association as possible on Thursday as possible.

Negro Shot Near Fort Mill. Fort Mill special of November 22, to Charlotte Observer. On Saturday night, Crawford Tschiller, an employee of the Fort Mill Manufacturing Co., shot Clifton Alexander, negro, an employee of the Charlotte Brick Co., with a shotgun, the lead striking him in Alexander's left arm near the shoulder.

The wound proved so dangerous that Alexander became unconscious and he was taken to the hospital. The arm was amputated yesterday morning and the negro will be sent to a Rock Hill hospital this afternoon. Tschiller has been committed to York jail to await the result of the negro's injury.

Faithful Old Mule. Mr. Henry Peeler of the Ramoth neighborhood, came into The Enquirer this morning to tell of the death of Mr. W. J. Mullinax's mule, "Rhody," which occurred yesterday. Rhody was a home-raised mule, foaled as the property of some of the Mullinax connection 32 years ago, and owned by Mr. Mullinax since he was 18 months old. "She was quite a peppy mule in her young days, and on up until she reached a good old age," said Mr. Peeler, "and was never sick in her life until a few days ago when Mr. Mullinax raised his family with her, and about two years ago turned her out to have a good time for the balance of her life. He saw that she had the run of the best pastures, fed her on boiled corn and the like and took the best possible care of her. I think it is Mr. Mullinax's intention to bury the mule today."

Charged With Grave Crime. Sam Kirby of Rock Hill, and Lester Hearn, his brother-in-law, are in jail charged with sand-bagging. E. Jarrell, proprietor of a pressing club of Rock Hill, and robbing him of $211, the alleged crime having been committed in a piece of woods on the outskirts of Rock Hill late Saturday evening. It is alleged that Kirby and Jarrell, having learned that Jarrell was in possession of a large sum of money, enticed him to go to Kirby's hunting. When they entered the woods, Jarrell alleges that one of the men struck him over the back of the head with some weapon. He was rendered unconscious and when he came to himself his money was gone and so were Kirby and Hearn. He managed to get back to Rock Hill, where he notified the police, who in a short time arrested Hearn and Kirby. The money has not been recovered.

Eastern Teachers Meet. Some forty or fifty York county school teachers, members of the eastern division of the York County Teachers' association, attended a meeting of the division in the auditorium of the Central graded school in Rock Hill Saturday morning. The programme included addresses by Miss Belle Williams, secretary of the Audubon society of South Carolina, and Prof. J. W. Thomson of Winthrop college. Superintendent of Education John E. Carruth of the present J. E. Swearingen, state superintendent of education, has been invited to address the next meeting of the division, which will be held in January. Practically all the Rock Hill teachers attended the meeting Saturday and the attendance also included the following: Oak Ridge, Mrs. Hetty Browne, Miss Emma Cooper; Concord, Miss Mary Gettys; Fort Mill, Misses Minnie Garrison, Sue White, Elizabeth Dubose, Isabel Grier, Carolyn Smith, Frances Milling; Bethesda, Miss Lucile Guster; Ebenezer, Miss Ruth Stokes; Tinsley, Misses Ethel Caldwell, Gertrude Hiers, Eva Mitchell; Gold Hill, Miss Mary Garrison; East View, Miss Mary Byers; Mt. Holly, Misses Lillian Liles, Lillian Firestones.
